

The chimneys

There used to be fireplaces here.

They were the kitchens' chimneys.

Soldiers cooked here.

On the floor you can see where they used to be.

Scents came out of the chimneys.

It was the smell of food.

Each dish had a story.

What you can do

Do you have a food you like?

You can:

- draw your dish
- leave your drawing here

Other people will see it.

Do you want to know more?

Go to Giobatta's bedroom.

Read the story in his diary.
