

The Fort of Games

on the trail of Giobatta the Soldier

Welcome to the world of Giobatta the soldier, or rather the half-soldier!

Giobatta lived in this Fort for 4 years, completely alone, never seeing another human being. In those 4 years he had thousands of adventures, and today you can relive some of them with us.

Walk around the fort and you will find the game stations where you can experience the magical world of Giobatta the Half-Soldier, and if you would like to get to know him better, go and visit his bedroom. You will find many goofy and funny things - in addition to his diary in which he tells his magical adventures.
